

POLICY ON MATERIALITY OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS AND ON DEALING WITH RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

1. PREAMBLE

Dr. Agarwal's Health Care Limited (hereinafter referred 'the Company') recognises that transactions between the Company and one or more of its Related Parties (more particularly referred to as 'Related Party Transactions' and defined hereinafter) present a risk of actual or potential conflicts of interest.

With a view to ensure that the Related Party Transactions are in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders, the Board of Directors (the 'Board') of the Company has adopted this Policy on Related Party Transactions in line with the requirements of the Companies Act, 2013 and SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosures Requirements) (hereinafter referred to as SEBI LODR).

2. OBJECTIVE

This Policy is framed as per requirement under Regulation 23 of the SEBI LODR Regulations and is intended to ensure proper approval, review and disclosure of related party transactions. Such transactions may be considered appropriate only if they are in the best interest of the Company.

3. DEFINITIONS

- a) Arm's length transaction means a transaction between two related parties that is conducted as if they were unrelated, so that there is no conflict of interest.
- b) "Board of Directors" or "Board" shall mean the collective body of the Directors of the Company as constituted from time to time, in line with the provisions of the Act and the SEBI Listing Regulations.
- c) "Key Managerial Personnel" or "KMPs" in relation to the Company shall have the definition as ascribed to the term under Section 2(51) of the Act, as amended from time to time.
- d) Material Modification means modification(s) in the pricing or overall transaction value of a previously approved related party transaction having a variance of 20% (twenty percent) or more.
- e) Material Related Party Transaction means a transaction with a related party if the transaction/transactions to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds the thresholds specified in Schedule XII of the SEBI LODR Regulations.

Notwithstanding the above, a transaction involving payments made to a related party with respect to brand usage or royalty shall be considered material if the transaction(s) to be entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds five percent of the annual consolidated turnover of the Company as per the last audited financial statements of the Company.

f) Ordinary course of business means the usual transactions, customs and practices undertaken by the Company to conduct its business operations and activities and includes all such activities which the company can undertake as per Memorandum & Articles of Association.

g) Related Party means an entity shall be considered related to the Company if:

- i. such entity is a related party under Section 2(76) of the Companies Act, 2013 or
- ii. such entity is a related party under the applicable accounting standards. Provided that:
 - a) any person or entity forming a part of the promoter or promoter group of the Company; or
 - b) any person or any entity, holding equity shares:
 - of twenty percent or more; or
 - of ten per cent or more, w.e.f. 01.04.2023 in the Company either directly or on a beneficial interest basis as provided under Section 89 of the Companies Act, 2013, at any time, during the immediately preceding financial year; shall be deemed to be a related party.

h) Related Party Transaction means:

- a. for the purpose of the Act, specified transaction of the Company with Related Parties mentioned in clause (a) to (g) of sub-section 1 of Section 188 of the Act, as amended; and
- b. for the purpose of Regulation 2(1)(zc) of the SEBI Listing Regulations, a transfer of resources, services or obligations between:
 - a) a listed entity or any of its subsidiaries on one hand and a related party of the listed entity or any of its subsidiaries on the other hand; or
 - b) a listed entity or any of its subsidiaries on one hand, and any other person or entity on the other hand, the purpose and effect of which is to benefit a related party of the listed entity or any of its subsidiaries, with effect from April 1, 2023; regardless of whether a price is charged and a “transaction” with a related party shall be construed to include a single transaction or a group of transactions in a contract:

Provided that the following shall not be a related party transaction:

- a. the issue of specified securities on a preferential basis, subject to compliance of the requirements under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2018;

- (i) 10% of the annual standalone turnover of the subsidiary as per the last audited financial statements of the subsidiary; or
- (ii) the threshold for material related party transactions of the Company as specified in Schedule XII of the SEBI LODR Regulations.

In the above scenario, if the subsidiary does not have audited financial statements for a period of at least one year, prior approval of the audit committee of the Company shall be obtained if the value of such transaction exceeds the lower of the following:

- (i) 10% of the aggregate value of paid-up share capital and securities premium account of the subsidiary; or
- (ii) the threshold for material related party transactions of the Company as specified in Schedule XII of the SEBI LODR Regulations:

Provided that the aggregate value of paid-up share capital and securities premium account of the subsidiary shall be taken as on a date, not older than three months prior to the date of seeking approval of the audit committee.

- Prior approval of the audit committee of the Company shall not be required for a related party transaction to which the listed subsidiary is a party but the Company is not a party, if regulation 23 and sub-regulation (2) of regulation 15 of the SEBI LODR Regulations are applicable to such listed subsidiary.
Explanation: For related party transactions of unlisted subsidiaries of such listed subsidiary as referred above, the prior approval of the audit committee of the listed subsidiary shall suffice.
- Remuneration and sitting fees paid by the Company or its Subsidiary to its director, key managerial personnel or senior management, except who is part of promoter or promoter group, shall not require approval of the audit committee provided that the same is not material in terms of the Schedule XII of the SEBI LODR Regulation.
- The members of the audit committee, who are independent directors, may ratify related party transactions within three months from the date of the transaction or in the immediate next meeting of the audit committee, whichever is earlier in accordance with the provisions and subject to the conditions as laid under the Companies Act, 2013 and SEBI LODR Regulations.
- Matters relating to the approval of Related Party Transactions shall be considered and approved only by the Independent Directors of the Audit Committee.
